FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

12. That NYPD is/are on information and belief owned, operated and/or subject to directives of the defendant CITY.
13. That on or about 7/9/15 the plaintiff EDWARD PORRATA was falsely arrested/accused of being allegedly involved in an assault upon a homeless man one FRANCISCO DELGADO who was trespassing and/or was harassing plaintiff and his workers in front of 403 East 8th Street, in the City, County and State of New York and was falsely charged by the NYPD and/or said police officers and/or New York County District Attorney's office. Said defendant police officers improperly swore to and/or filed a criminal court complaint against EDWARD PORRATA, Arrest no. M15650377, Docket No. 2015NY043367 for:

PL 240.30 04	A Misdemeanor, Description Agg Harass 2
PL 240.26 01	Violation, 1 count, Arraignment charge Description Harassment 2nd- Phy Contact
PL 120.00 01	A Misdemeanor, 1 count, Arrest charge, Arraignment charge TOP CHARGE Description Aslt W/int Causes Phys Injury, Assault in the 3rd

14. Said criminal court complaint was based on the fraudulent complaints/accusations of the said police officers and the NYPD, since PORRATA was vindictively assaulted by the said FRANCISCO DELGADO who "sucker punched" PORRATA in the face causing PORRATA to bleed (plaintiff had to seek medical attention after his release by the court after the subsequent arraignment) and JANE DOE police officer negligently advised PORRATA and DELGADO that it was official NYPD police that if PORRATA filed a criminal complaint against DELGADO, as PORRATA demanded be done, that if DELGADO filed a false complaint even though she witnessed the event/ assault on PORRATA by DELGADO and even though she saw PORRATA did nothing to provoke the attack. PORRATA had at least 3 witnesses to the assault upon him and nevertheless the police officers arrested PORRATA and negligently placed the inadequately sized, too small for a large person, handcuffs upon him and refused to issue a desk appearance ticket or DAT even though PORRATA's attorney called the precinct and requested that an appearance ticket be issued under the circumstances, then illegally detained and then falsely arrested and/or held/incarcerated, booked, processed, arraigned, falsely imprisoned as per the request of the defendant NYPD and/or its police officers and personnel. The plaintiff was falsely charged in a criminal complaint prepared and filed by the District Attorney of New York County, in the Criminal Court of the City of New York, specifically on Docket No. 2015NY043367, New York County on the above noted charges on information and belief with the direct help and input from the said defendant police officers, who provided false information to the District attorney and the court and in effect were directly responsible for the malicious prosecution of the plaintiff; on information and belief commanding officers or other NYPD personnel at the 9th precinct made a decision to hold and charge the said Plaintiff PORRATA. Said criminal complaint based on the aforementioned unprovoked egregious assault and battery upon the plaintiff by the said DELGAGO that was witnessed by POLICE OFFICER JANE DOE, was filed on or about 7/9/15 which resulted in the the initial illegal and/or false arrest and/or false imprisonment of the Plaintiff on the aforementioned false charges.

Said charges arose out of the egregious assault and battery upon Plaintiff PORRATA. The criminal charges and the malicious prosecution was at the request of the said NYPD defendant police officers and/or because of the NYPD's negligent supervision including the decision to arraign and prosecute the plaintiff PORRATA on false criminal charges which ultimately resulted in his exoneration on or about Monday, November 16, 2015 in Part C, before Judge Abena Darkeh, No. 12 on the calendar, the case was marked dismissed and sealed the charges against EDWARD PORRATA were all dismissed. PORRATA had to appear in court on at least 3 court dates when the plaintiff each time refused to take an adjournment in contemplation of dismissal under New York State Criminal Procedure Law Sect. 170.55, but demanded a trial.

15. The Plaintiff PORRATA, as a result of said intentional and/or negligent acts of defendants, was in effect "assaulted" without provocation and/or subjected to "excessive force" and because he was illegally detained, falsely accused, falsely arrested, imprisoned, maliciously prosecuted and subjected to intolerable conditions and unacceptable behavior of those who held them in custody including the said defendant police officers, other intentional and/or negligent acts of the defendants and/or on the part of the defendants included but were not limited to lengthy and intolerable incarceration and being forcibly held and falsely imprisoned for approximately 24 hours, the excessive force and injury caused by the too small cuffs; and then was the subject of defendants' malicious prosecution including the continuous adjournments when the plaintiff PORRATA had to defend false criminal charges which increased legal fees for his defense; plaintiff always announced ready for trial and proclaimed his innocence.

16. The Plaintiff suffered from the said acts of defendants and/or failure to act including physical injuries and mental and emotional distress. The plaintiff was publicly humiliated, physically assaulted and/or abused by the police and arresting officers; specifically POLICE OFFICER JANE DOE and POLICE OFFICERS JOHN DOEs 1 AND 2, who both pushed and manhandled the plaintiff PORRATA causing exacerbation of previously sustained conditions PORRATA suffered from an automobile accident and a fall off a ladder, and the officers literally refused to remove the too small NYPD issued handcuffs which caused permanent injury to his wrists and/or to provide medical attention for his wrists or bleeding face! PORRATA was shoved into the police car even though he and many bystanders explained vehemently to the police officers that he was innocent of any wrongdoing and had not violated any law or ordinance and that the defendant police officers' actions were unwarranted and uncalled for! This all occurred in front of 403 E. 8th Street, in the City, County, and State of New York, which is in the Southern District of New York and was witnessed by dozens of bystanders who actually complained to the said arresting officers, of their illegal unwarranted, unconscionable actions and behavior of the police officers towards PORRATA. The plaintiff PORRATA was physically injured by defendant POLICE OFFICERS. Thereafter the arresting officers continued to harass and annoy PORRATA at the precinct until plaintiff was brought to Central Booking and to Criminal Court for arraignment. The Plaintiff immediately became ill and remained in an infirm state since he was in effect assaulted and subjected to excessive force and otherwise physically abused while incarcerated and was not afforded adequate medical attention and/or treatment; subjected to excessive force e.g. the refusal to remove the handcuffs that were too tight and too small. Plaintiff was deprived of his liberty, and/or lost companionship of family and friends. Plaintiff now has a record of an arrest which may interfere with his future life e.g. career, ability to find work. Plaintiff was forced to incur legal and medical expenses and the like. Specifically EDWARD PORRATA has to seek medical treatment from doctors and medical providers; was seen and treated after his release by one or more doctors or medical facilities.

17. On information and belief the City of New York has negligently failed to properly administer it's agencies and/or departments and the like in regard to the supervision and control over police officers who accuse and arrest citizens and directly effect those accused, detained, arrested, and/or incarcerated and in particular the Plaintiff PORRATA. The said negligence of the CITY has contributed and/or is responsible for the incident that occurred the continued prosecution and mistreatment of the plaintiff's injuries.

18. On information and belief defendant, CITY, NYPD, negligently failed to train, supervise, or provide officers, personnel and/or superiors to supervise and/or control the administration of justice. That as a result of the said negligence the plaintiff suffered.

19. The Plaintiff EDWARD PORRATA not only was falsely arrested and accused by the NYPD but was incarcerated (held at the precinct and in the pens at central booking) as well; the plaintiff was subjected to unnecessary excessive force by the arresting officers and his illegal arrest on information and belief was witnessed by countless passersby when he was illegally arrested on the street. The defendants herein are liable to the plaintiff for the continued unnecessary, unconscionable and unconstitutional policy of requiring that when defendants filed "cross complaints that both defendants must be arrested when it was abundantly clear that one of the defendants here PORRATA is absolutely innocent, suffered injuries, here a bloody face and should under no circumstances have had to go through the system- arrest, arraignment, booking, photographing, going before a judge and the like. This “policy” of refusing to issue Appearance tickets/ DAT is unconscionable and is in violation of this plaintiff’s constitutional rights. The policy of false prosecution and to put him through the system of a criminal complaint is flawed. The refusal to issue or provide cuffs that fit all people is unconscionable.

20. That on information and belief the said Defendants, N. Y. P. D. it’s said police officers, detectives, agents and the like, had information, specifically from witnesses at the scene and the like. On information and belief the police officers who arrested PORRATA heard accounts by unbiased eyewitnesses that the Plaintiff PORRATA was innocent and knew was not involved in the crimes that he was falsely charged with when it was PORRATA who was egregiously and without provocation assaulted by DELGADO and thereafter the police needlessly falsely arrested and imprisoned and maliciously prosecuted PORRATA. The defendants withheld information from the court, that would have immediately exonerated plaintiff or should have resulted in the dismissal of his criminal case/ (prosecution).

21. That on information and belief the NYPD and the individual defendant Police Officers and/or did everything possible to prevent this Plaintiff PORRATA from being released and/or that the charges be dropped against them, despite possessing the information and/or the evidence that exonerated him and established that he was innocent.

22. That on information and belief the Defendant N.Y.C.\D, individual police officers with the hope that that the Plaintiff PORRATA could not afford to defend himself on the criminal cases and either plead to a lesser charge and/or not sue the CITY and/or the NYPD and co-defendant police officers if they continue maliciously prosecute him.

23. That the Plaintiff PORRATA was initially held as a prisoner against his will in detention cells/jail for approximately 24 hours and was effectively prevented from enjoying his freedom and companionship of friends and family. The plaintiff PORRATA was severely injured and needed medical attention and still suffers from the injuries that he sustained because of the “excessive force”, the too tight handcuffs that the defendant police officers refused to remove. Plaintiff was traumatized physically and emotionally injured. The plaintiff PORRATA’s wrists were permanently injured and he was initially advised that he may require surgery but the prognosis was that he would be permanently impaired as to both hands and wrists. He was deliberately pushed/ shoved into the police car when he offered no resistance and his face was bleeding from the assault by DELGADO by one or more defendant police officers even though he had committed no crime. There were many eyewitnesses who complained about the illegal release and excessive force upon the plaintiff and/or police violence against the plaintiff.

24. On information and belief the actions of the defendants were intentionally done to harass and annoy and interfere with the plaintiff PORRATA and his attorneys’ defense of his criminal case to convince him to plead guilty to a lesser charge(s) and to cover up the illegal police conduct. Said actions were unconscionable and violated the plaintiff’s constitutional rights e.g. of due process, right to counsel and fair trial under the United States and New York State Constitutions. The egregious assault(s) on the plaintiff’s person without provocation and then his illegal detention, initial false arrest, and the “excessive force”- refused to remove his cuffs and subsequent false imprisonment and malicious prosecution violated his Constitutional Rights under the New York State and Federal Constitutions including but not limited to his right to due process of the law.

25. The said defendants are liable for the intentional torts denoted in this complaint; their negligence for false arrest, false imprisonment, intentional infliction of mental distress and for prima facie tort in that there was the deliberate withholding of evidence and/or deliberate failure to investigate the police misconduct, falsification of criminal charges and/or that the said defendants are liable for their negligence and/or were negligent for their said actions and/or failure to act and/or were liable for fraud, false arrest, false imprisonment, malicious prosecution and all other claims denoted in the initial notice of claim that is incorporated in the instant complaint and reiterated herein.

26. That said false arrest, false imprisonment and malicious prosecution of the Plaintiff was void on its face and/or was obvious from the onset since defendant police office JANE DOE actually witnessed DELGADO sucker punch the plaintiff and the plaintiff, a much larger man with three helpers/workmen next to him did nothing in retaliation but asked the police officer to arrest DELGADO.

27. That on information and belief the defendant police officers fraudulently and/or knowingly withheld from the Plaintiff, his family and/or his attorneys; the court and District Attorney's office of New York County and any and all information in his possession that would have exonerated the plaintiff and would have resulted in the prompt dismissal of the criminal charges and reinstatement of his rights; that the said knowing and fraudulent actions by the defendants in the continued false malicious and illegal prosecutions of the Plaintiff resulted in the mental, and emotional distress that the plaintiff had to endure. The acts of the defendant police officers and/or other acts noted herein establish defendants' liability for fraud.

28. That the foregoing acts of the defendant negatively affected the reputation of the Plaintiff and caused him emotional disturbance and distress.

29. That plaintiff PORRATA was subjected to excessive force upon him and then had to endure a period of incarceration and has been under physician's care since the incident he suffered injuries to both his wrists and exacerbation of previous debilitating physical conditions and the accompanying loss of self esteem and emotional distress.

30. That plaintiff was held in custody in the detention cells of the police station; and then held in the detention cells and/or a jail(s) maintained by the defendant(s) CITY and NYPD.

31. That as a result of the foregoing acts of the defendant the Plaintiff PORRATA and/or his family was compelled to retain counsel and/or expend monies for the defense/ representation/ and/or attempts to secure the release of Plaintiff and will continue to be obligated for legal expenses in the future. Plaintiff retained Stuart R. Shaw to represent PORRATA in his criminal defense.

32. That a notice of claim and/or notice of intention to sue was duly served upon the defendant within 90 days after the said cause of action of the plaintiff "accrued". The Notice of Claim reads as follows:

"PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the undersigned claimant(s) hereby make(s) claim and demand against THE CITY OF NEW YORK, NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT, POLICE OFFICER "JANE DOE" AND POLICE OFFICERS "JOHN DOE 1 AND 2" as follows:

Specifically police officers of the 9th Precinct, New York County including but not limited to POLICE OFFICER JANE DOE AND POLICE OFFICERS "JOHN DOES 1 AND 2" of the 9th precinct and/or a female police officer JANE DOE from an unknown police precinct but not on information and belief from the precinct of the NYPD on or about 7/9/15 at or about 8:15 AM at or about 403 East 8th Street in the City, County and State of New York. Illegally detained, arrested or accused the said claimant. That the initial illegal detention, false arrest and false imprisonment of the ARRESTED PERSON/Claimant PORRATA on the aforementioned false charges was on or about 7/9/15; that the ARRESTED PERSON/Claimant PORRATA was falsely arrested, accused, imprisoned, and subjected to intolerable conditions and unacceptable behavior on the part of the defendant including but not limited to a vicious unprovoked humiliating physical assault upon the claimant's person where the said police officers literally placed the cuffs on PORRATA, a large man, tightly, for no just reason on PORRATA, a Vietnam Veteran, causing abrasions and contusions and the like and thereafter without properly giving Miranda warnings subjected him to lengthy and intolerable interrogations, being humiliated, booked, fingerprinted, photographed, put in a cell, not permitted to consult with his attorney, not provided him with MIRANDA rights, warnings, etc.; that he was not given medical attention until his attorney called the precinct and demanded same and he went to a physician after he was released for treatment. That he remained in said incarcerated condition until the evening of 7/9/15 when he was finally arraigned having been held under intolerable conditions at a precinct and not brought down to 100 Centre Street until literally evening hours when he was released on his own recognizance after being offered an adjournment in contemplation of dismissal under 170.55 under the Criminal Procedure Law and given a court date with the bogus criminal charges brought against him still existant. the claimant PORRATA was also viciously struck in the face by the alleged complainant with the arresting POLICE OFFICER JANE DOE was present, witnessed and saw PORRATA struck by one Francisco Delgado, without provocation and blows were rained down upon his head and body by the alleged complainant Francisco Delgado. On information and belief causing a serious or permanent injury to PORRATA. The charges against the said claimant as quoted from the Criminal Complaint Docket no. 2015NY043367 as noted heretofore.

3. Claimant EDWARD PORRATA is the falsely arrested/imprisoned person. On or about 7/9/15 the claimant was physically assaulted by the complaining witness Francisco Delgado, on information and belief a homeless person and therein by effect by the police officers initially JANE DOE, who used excessive force in putting on the cuffs and other actions. The other officers are named as POLICE OFFICER JOHN DOE 1-2 on information and belief RONIEL DILONE, Shield no. 28209, 9th Precinct, and POLICE OFFICER JANE DOE. PORRATA was actually struck in his face by the complaining witness when all he was doing was trying to work on a stoop that he and his crew were hired by the landlord to fix. Specifically at the time of the incident the claimant PORRATA had been contracted to make repairs to the staircase/stoop of a premises at the location where he was arrested at or about 403 East 8th Street. Members of his "crew" went to get PORRATA who was in the rear of the building working because the so-called complaining witness Francisco Delgado, on information and belief a homeless person refused to get off the stoop so that it could be repaired and seemed to be in an inebriated or drug induced condition was vile and abusive in his language in both English and Spanish. PORRATA, a man of large stature approached the said Delgado and asked him politely to remove himself from the staircase. PORRATA and his crew saw that a female police officer was directly across the street talking to someone observing Delgado who was talking in a loud and abusive way. PORRATA and his crew motioned to the police officer to come over which she finally did after DELGADO sucker punched PORRATA several times striking him in the face and elsewhere. PORRATA and his crew could have easily overcome Delgado but waited for the female police officer who observed everything but when she approached the two men she literally suggested to Delgado to file a cross complaint against PORRATA and in that way she would not have to arrest anyone since if PORRATA insisted on pressing charges both men would have to be arrested. The female police officer referred to herein as JANE DOE offered this information to Delgado who did not request same and then called for other police from the local precinct since on information and belief even though she was on duty and in uniform she was talking to a male friend on the street and she was from a different precinct and not at her proper post! The 9th Precinct OFFICERS JOHN DOE on information and belief RONIEL DILONE and his partner JOHN DOE NO. 2 arrived and only heard the story of Delgado and the JANE DOE police officer and refused to listen to PORRATA or interview his crew even though they offered his names as witnesses and roughed up PORRATA using excessive force including putting the cuffs on too tight and treated this Vietnam Veteran with disdain. PORRATA sought medical treatment after he was released on his own recognizance and was offered an ACD which he refused because he wanted to file suit against police and JANE DOE individually whose name was not provided despite his repeated request for same! (this entire fact scenario was disclosed to the District Attorney representative in the courtroom at time of arraignment by claimant's counsel with a specific request and find out the name of the female officer.) The claimant was forcibly removed on information and belief to the 9th Precinct and then not brought to 100 Centre Street for arraignment until almost 24 hours after the arrest and therefore he was held for approximately 15 hours. Claimant sought medical attention after his release and will have to continuously seek medical attention for his serious and/or permanent injuries and other injuries that he suffered including emotional distress and financial losses.

4. At approximately 8:15 AM on 7/9/15 the said police used excessive force in arresting claimant and when cuffing the claimant and later took PORRATA to the precinct to a cell where he was placed in custody against his will. PORRATA was thoroughly searched everywhere about his body and photographs were taken again and then placed in a holding cell that was filthy and dirty and stunk of urine and feces and he was kept there for awhile and then later on 7/9/15 he was cuffed again and police took him to be arraigned before a judge at 100 Centre Street. PORRATA must defend the criminal charge and PORRATA has retained Stuart R. Shaw, Esq. to represent him and will and has incurred legal fees and expenses. Claimant has sought legal counsel and is responsible for legal fees and disbursements.

5. *The Claimant PORRATA was not only were illegally detained, he was falsely arrested and accused by the N.Y.P.D. but he was incorrectly accused when he was arrested as having been involved in the above noted alleged crimes. The claimant EDWARD PORRATA was incorrectly negligently charged and maliciously prosecuted by the NEW YORK COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY and/or the N.Y.P.D. and was negligently incarcerated before he appeared in the court on the said Criminal Court case the aforementioned negligent actions of the N.Y.P.D. and NEW YORK COUNTY District Attorney by said negligent incorrect accusations against this Claimant PORRATA has caused serious repercussions and damaged the Claimant. For instance the Claimant PORRATA was separated from his family, friends and etc. and the fact that he was incarcerated made it difficult for his family and his attorney Stuart R. Shaw to locate him in the Criminal Justice system including why and where he was incarcerated. He and his crew were hired to work for several days. He lost income and incurred expenses.

6. That on information and belief the Defendant N. Y. P. D. its police officers, detectives, agents and the like, and/or the Defendant District Attorneys office had information that this Claimant PORRATA was innocent and not involved in the crimes that he was alleged to have committed, but intentionally withheld information from, the claimant EDWARD PORRATA and/or his family from the onset and/or should have resulted in his immediate release and/or to cover up the fact that he had been assaulted and beaten by on information and belief a homeless man Delgado without provocation or reason. That on information and belief the Police and/or District Attorneys office did everything possible to prevent the Claimant PORRATA from being released and/or timely released and/or that the charges be immediately dropped against him; that on information and belief the Defendant N.Y.P.D and/or District Attorney intentionally did the aforementioned acts to keep the Claimant PORRATA "on ice"; that the Claimant PORRATA was held as prisoner against his will on 7/9/15 until his release and was prevented from being with his family from the time of his illegal detention and false arrest and incarceration and was prevented from working.

7. That the Claimant PORRATA was negligently held by the defendant in spite of the fact that the Claimant PORRATA was innocent. That Claimant PORRATA was not a perpetrator of any crime. This caused him and his family severe mental and emotional distress, and pain and suffering. Personal belongings were lost and/or damaged and otherwise affected by the unreasonable search by the police that resulted in the finding of no contraband or evidence to support his allegations against PORRATA. This was not a consent detention, search, arrest or incarceration

1. The time when, the place where and the manner in which the claim arose: see above- 7/9/15, at or about 8:15 AM at 403 East 8th Street, New York, NY, thereafter at the 9th Precinct, New York, New York and/or Central Booking and/or at 100 Centre Street, New York, New York. Claimant PORRATA was illegally detained, falsely arrested without an arrest or search warrant against the claimant, arresting officer Jane Doe saw the alleged complaint against the complaining witness struck the claimant and did nothing about it but instead arrested the claimant and negligently refused to give a DAT.

2. The items of damage or injuries claimed are one million ($1,000,000.00) dollars for each claimant on each legal cause of action against each defendant see above numbers 1, 2 & 3:

1. Negligence
2. False arrest
3. False Imprisonment
4. Intentional infliction of mental distress
5. Prima facie tort
